WERER COUNTY AFFAIRS.

At the meeting of the board of county commissioners the following matters were considered: An application for a license to sell liquor in Ogden canyon at the Hermitage was presented by Commissioner W. G. Wilson, but no definite action was taken on the matter and from present indications the application will not be granted. Commissioner Fowers stated he was in favor of granting a license to Mr. Wilson. Chairman Stanford sald that he stood the same on the matter of granting liquor licenses to sell liquor in Ogden canyon now, as when the "Oaks" made its application, against it, and as Mr. Wilson is an interested party he cannot vote on the proposition, hence with Mr. Stanford against and Mr. Fowers in favor the vote will the when it is taken and the license will not be granted.

In the matter of the school consoli-dation, the following trustees were ap-I conted to act until the election in July District No. 1—Archibald McFarland West Weber: Frank Stratford, Wilson; Henry P. Green, Kanesville.
District No. 2-W. T. Stewart, War ren; C. H. Owens, Farr West; John F. Vause, Plain City. Commissioner Wilson did not vote upon the above. The resignation of H. J. C county surveyor, was tendered and ac-

Before Judge Rolapp in the district court the case of the State of Utah against J. T. Fowler, charged with impersonating an officer and making the arrest of a desorter from the army, was heard. The state was represented was heard. The state was represented by Dist. Atty. Halverson and the de-fendant by Atty. E. A. Wedgewood, of Salt Lake City. A number of witnesses were examined, among them being private Fitzgerald, the deserter, whom Fowler took in custody. From the testimony introduced it was very apparent that Fowler did not impersonate an er in order to make the arrest, but the deserter admitted to him that he had left the army without permission and suggested to Fowler that he take him to Salt Lake and get the $30 reward for his capture. Accordingly Fowler took Fitzgerald to Salt Lake and de-The court

He stated that a fund has been started which will be contributed to by all the teachers in the Church schools, and which will be used for fellowship prizes and kindred uses. It is the expectation to choose the foremost scholars in the Church schools and send them to the greatest institutions of learning in the world, in order that they may have the benefit of all that is brightest and best in the line of educa-tion, and come home and impart it to the children of the Latter-day Saints. Supt. Tanner further stated that the
